VOTIVE OFFERING STAND

Gustave B. Bohne, Inventor.

Extract from Patent News, Washington, D. C., November, 1914

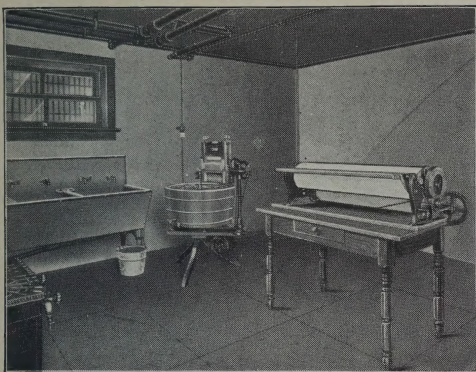

Mr. Gustave B. Bohne has recently obtained patent No. 1,108,062 on a votive offering stand, the purpose of which is to eliminate poor box and votive stand robberies. The money box of this stand is entirely concealed and no one not authorized will be able to remove money from the box. Not only is the money box protected from the would-be thief but the slot in which coins are to be placed is likewise protected by an alarm. Money may be deposited in the slot without alarm but the slightest attempt to fish out coins therefrom will cause the sounding of a loud alarm. Furthermore any article inserted in the slot for the purpose of rifling the money box will be caught therein so that it cannot be removed by person attempting the robbery, as the slot will lock itself upon the article inserted and at the same time give forth a continuous alarm as long as it remains therein. This box is so constructed that even a person having a key thereto cannot remove money from the box without causing an alarm unless they are initiated as to the secret combination with which the box is provided. Mr. Bohne feels confident that his votive box will do away with church robberies which of late have become so numerous. Mr. Bohne is a native of Germany, having been born in Hanover in 1864, but came to this country when a mere lad and has worked his way to a successful business, being in the Church Goods Business at 34 Barclay Street, New York City.

Editorial Notes.

THE DATE OF ISSUE.

The 1915 volume of "The Official Catholic Directory" appears nearly two months earlier than did the 1914 issue, although the publishers did not accomplish what they set out to do. The publishers planned to issue the present volume not later than February 15th and to that end set December 10th, 1914, as a final closing date for all forms. There was some misunderstanding as to the meaning of the term "closing date" and as the Chancery officials of some archdioceses and dioceses were of the opinion that proofs would be submitted for O.K. after the closing of the forms the publishers extended the date to December 28th in those cases where "copy" was received on or about December 10th and return proofs were necessary.

A GOOD BEGINNING.

The publishers are glad to be able to say, however, that in most cases the diocesan chancery officials observed the "closing date" and in future no delay is expected. It was deemed very inadvisable to republish from the 1914 volume reports for United States dioceses and in no case were the statistics copied from last year's book. In a few cases the reports are not as complete as they should be, but the publishers printed the statistics just as they were received.

THE POPULATION FIGURES.

The increase in the number of Catholics during the year 1914 amounts to 241,325. This figure will not satisfy the critical observer but it must be remembered that forty archdioceses and dioceses made no change in the population figure. Forty-four dioceses report increases, while fifteen show decreases. Among the fifteen showing decreases are three dioceses which have given up territory for the establishment of the two new dioceses of El Paso and Spokane. In fairness to the diocesan chancery officials it must be said that it is impossible to take a new census every year. In many dioceses the Catholic census is taken every five years and in some American dioceses the census is only taken every ten years.

The total number of Catholics in the United States, according to the present issue, is 16,309,310. This is a very conservative figure, and according to the editor, who has compiled the figures for the last ten issues of the Directory, at least ten per cent. must be added to the 16,309,310 on account of "floating" Catholic population of which no record can be kept.

NEW FEATURES.

Under the heading of "Missionary Activities in the United States" patrons will find a new department on page 858 of this issue. The reports for Home and Foreign Missions are presented this year in outline only, but the compilers hope to publish fuller reports year after year.

Another new feature which will, no doubt, please many patrons is the complete list of National Colleges in Rome. This list will be found on pages 9 and 10 and gives in tabloid the information which Prelates and Priests may be looking for regarding the Colleges of the various nations in the Holy City.

With the addition of the statistics for the American possessions in Samoa the publishers present this year for the first time reports of all of the foreign possessions of the United States.

Special attention ought to be called to the likenesses of His Holiness, Pope Benedict XV. and of our late Holy Father, Pope Pius X., which appear in the pictorial section of this volume. Unusual efforts were made to secure the best photographs.

RECENT DEATHS AND APPOINTMENTS.

Several important changes in the Hierarchy of the United States took place shortly after the text forms had been printed. The Very Rev. John J. Brown, S. J., Superior of the New Mexico and Colorado Mission of the Jesuit Fathers, was appointed Bishop of the new See of El Paso, Texas, a few days after the pages of the El Paso diocese had been printed, and the death of Right Rev. Bishop Burke of Albany was recorded two or three days after the Albany pages had been completed.

A MESSAGE OF THANKS.

A very special acknowledgment of thanks is due the diocesan chancery officials who promptly made returns to the publication office. It is a difficult task to make up complete and accurate reports for any diocese and the publishers are grateful, indeed, to those Prelates and Priests who assisted in preparing the 1915 volume.

THE ADVERTISERS IN CATHOLIC PUBLICATIONS.

The patrons of this and all other Catholic periodicals would materially help every Catholic publication in the land if mention were made of the fact that advertisements were seen in this or that publication. Firms advertising in Catholic media deserve recognition. They seek your trade and they are making a special bid for your favor in contra-distinction to those firms which bar the so-called "Religious Publications." It is well known to many of our Catholic advertising men that some firms will not permit their advertisements to go into Religious media.

ERRORS AND OMISSIONS.

The publishers would be grateful to all users of "The Official Catholic Directory" if attention were called to errors or omissions. In a volume of 1600 closely printed pages a certain number of errors will occur and the publishers respectfully request that all errors be made known to them as early as possible during the year.

With this plea the 1915 edition of "The Official Catholic Directory" makes its appearance.

HIERARCHY OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

THE SACRED COLLEGE OF CARDINALS.

The Cardinals, when duly constituted and proclaimed, form the Supreme Council or Senate of the Church. They are advisers of the Supreme Pontiff, and at the death of the Pontiff they elect his successor.

There are three orders of Cardinals, Cardinal-Bishops, Cardinal-Priests, and Cardinal-Deacons; but these orders are distinct from those of the Hierarchy; with very few exceptions the Cardinal Priests are Archbishops or Bishops, and the Cardinal Deacons are generally Priests. The Sacred College of Cardinals, when complete, consists of 70 members—6 Cardinal Bishops, 50 Cardinal Priests and 14 Cardinal Deacons.

The Cardinal Bishops take their title from the Suburban Sees of Rome, which are: Porto and Santa Rufina, Albano, Palestrina, Sabina, Frascati, Velletri. The Cardinal Dean has united to his See the See of Ostia. The Cardinal Priests take their title from the "Titular Churches" to which they are appointed, the Cardinal Deacons are appointed to other Churches called "Deaconies." The first Cardinal Bishop is Dean; the first Cardinal Priest is First Priest; and the first Cardinal Deacon is First Deacon of the Sacred College. The Dean has the right of consecrating, and the First Deacon the right of proclaiming and crowning a new Pope. On the death of the Pontiff, the Cardinal Camerlengo has the Administration of the affairs of the Holy See.

(The 'creation' of a Cardinal sometimes precedes, even by several years, the 'publication and proclamation.' The Cardinal is then said to be 'reserved in petto,' and when proclaimed, he takes the precedence according to date of creation.)

*) The population of the Archdiocese of St. Paul being largely rural, many Congregations cannot easily organize parochial schools; nor in such congregations is there a very special need of parochial schools, as teachers in the State or District Schools usually are Catholics, and due provision is otherwise made for the religious instruction of the pupils.
